

Tune into English

The Tune into English Roadshow

is an interactive workshop created and presented by Fergal Kavanagh. It aims to raise learners' awareness of the English used in pop music.

The show throws students into a whirlwind of activities based on carefully selected songs appropriate for the age and level of the class.

Quizzes, karaoke, music, fun and...lots of English make this alternative lesson a completely unforgettable experience for all involved.

The event, lasting between 90 and 120 minutes, can be presented in schools or other suitable venues, and involves between 70 and 150 students.
